

Places

How do you get to a certain place & stay in that place
when it's true

& not true about
other places? & true

& not about yours too?
So it makes

no difference & never did & all the times you felt

drained by moonlight
the same moon shone on another nothing.

Knowing now
leaves you dead.
